Training Documentation Requirements

Applicable to FAR Part 61 Training

The forms on this page are only required for applicants completing training under FAR Part 61. If you meet either of the following conditions:

- You have completed an FAA-approved home-study course, or

- You are a graduate of an FAA-approved FAR Part 141 program

👉 You do not need to submit these forms.

Simply upload a copy of your completion certificate when submitting your application.

Important Notes

- Ensure all documents are clear, legible, and complete.

- Incomplete or incorrect submissions may result in ineligibility to take the exam

- If you are using your logbook to establish documentation of your training, IT MUST BE LEGIBLE and cover ALL of the regulations contained in the FARs and the forms below.

BO ✈ CORBY